Dear Ms. Ali,

The manuscript has been revised as you requested, and re-submitted to Advances in Meteorology.

My phone number and home address have been removed.

All the Figures and Tables within the Supplemental Materials are now explicitly mentioned in the manuscript text.

A slightly revised Supplemental Materials document has also been submitted. The revisions here were small changes in wording within SI Section 9.

Thank-you very much for your consideration,

Pat

Dear Dr. Frank,

This is regarding manuscript 5153401 titled "Propagation of Error and the Reliability of Global Air Temperature Projections" We noticed that not all the supplementary material figures and tables are within the text, as figure 1,3,7,8 and 10 and table 1,3,4 only are cited within the text. Please cite all the figures and tables within the text.

We also noticed that there is phone numbers included in the PDF file of the manuscript. In order to protect the authors privacy please remove them.

I look forward to your feedback.

Best regards,

Rana
