Dear Dr. Frank,

This is regarding manuscript 5153401 titled "Propagation of Error and the Reliability of Global Air Temperature Projections" We have received the following comment from the editor assigned on the manuscript:

"The article still need to have minor edits to correct for the fact that the equations are un-readable"

Please send me via email an updated PDF file after taking the editor comment into consideration to be able to proceed with the review process.

I look forward to your feedback.

Best regards,
